Wall F is built of opus testaceum with a later addition of opus mixtum. The wall has a small opening on the north and south ends. On the south side of the wall, there is a 6cm opening on the top, which could be an entrance. On the north side, there is a 15cm opening on the top, which could be another entrance. The wall also has an opening on the east side, which could be a window. The wall is approximately 30cm square.

Wall G-N is built of opus testaceum with a later addition of opus mixtum. The wall has a small opening on the south side, which could be a window. The wall also has a 6cm opening on the north side, which could be another entrance. The wall is approximately 25cm square.

Wall C-D is built of opus testaceum with a later addition of opus mixtum. The wall has a small opening on the north side, which could be a window. The wall also has a 6cm opening on the south side, which could be another entrance. The wall is approximately 20cm square.

Wall B is built of opus testaceum with a later addition of opus mixtum. The wall has a small opening on the west side, which could be a window. The wall also has a 6cm opening on the east side, which could be another entrance. The wall is approximately 15cm square.

Wall A is built of opus testaceum with a later addition of opus mixtum. The wall has a small opening on the north side, which could be a window. The wall also has a 6cm opening on the south side, which could be another entrance. The wall is approximately 10cm square.