

Archaeological Ceramics Restoration Project, San Gemini, Italy 2013

Course: SG203B - Introduction to Conservation of Archaeological Ceramics – Part 2, Workshop

Instructors:

Prof. Elena Raimondi (Project Conservator / Restorer)

Prof. Elena Lorenzetti (Archaeologist)

| | |
|----------------------------|-------------------|
| Student Restorer | Benedetta Baleani |
| Student's Home University: | NA |

FINAL CONSERVATION REPORT

| | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| Reference data | Inventory number 643584 |
| Description (shape and decoration) | Patera / Phiale |
| Provenance | Norcia/Coranoni Burrial Imported item, manufactured perhaps in Cales near Capua in Campania made with a mold. Similar item is at British Museum. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/File:Campanian_ware_phiale_with_relief_decoration.JPG |
| Period/ Date | 330-290 BC. |
| Owner | Italian State/ Museo Archeologico Nazionale dell'Umbria |
| Condition report | NA |
| | Restoration Notes |
| 1. Documentation | Documented by digital photographs and written record |
| 2. Cleaning Method | NA |
| 3. Bonding | NA |
| 4. Filling | NA |
| 5. Other notes | NA |

Photographic documentation

Photo (before)

Photo (Before)

Photo (during)

Photo (during)

Photo (after)

Photo (after)

